Pedagogy, Curriculum & Assessment

We understand pedagogy, curriculum and assessment as a continuum to ensuring the best progress of all learners. We believe learners are at the heart of assessment and work with learners to identify their strengths, areas for development and next steps in learning. Engagement between learners, parents and staff is essential for progression. Our planning is underpinned by the What Matters Statements: Descriptions of learning: Used as guidance on how learners should progress within each statement of what matters as they journey through the continuum of learning, giving teachers scope to use them to select content that provides both breadth and depth of learning.

Wales

We believe in developing a child's sense of identity of Wales, the landscapes, culture, heritage and histories that come together to form their cynefin.

We want learners to be happy with who they are and be able to recognise and celebrate difference.

We celebrate Wales and it's language through daily school life and enjoy St David's day and Welsh themed weeks.

We also believe that it is important to extend children's knowledge of the wider world, exploring not only local, but national and global matters.

Learners are at the heart!

Knowing the individual children at our school, their families and our community that we belong to, we work together in harmony to support all children by responding to their needs. This ensures progression and that each individual meets their full potential, in an environment where they are nurtured and are provided with opportunities to wonder and thrive.
